Last day of class with seniors present: Finale Chapter 20 (1day)

Final Project: Each student is assigned a chapter of this year-long novel and creates a power point comic strip summary of their chapter. All chapters are then compiled and played as a home-made movie of the story...all scripted in French of course (outstanding!).

Daily

- a) 5-10 minute verb drill & journal entry for writing skills.
 - b) Read & discuss chapter scene selection
Each chapter I vary the approach: I may read aloud to the class / I may ask students to choose character parts and read aloud/ I may have them read in small groups and bring back to the class their comprehension of what is read / I may have them read silently and answer comprehension questions for independent work and to check each individual's progress—including in folder below.
 - c) Listen to cassette of scene selection
 - d) Do exercises labeled for scene selection/current reading
- *each chapter has its own labeled folder with all of these contents including quizzes and tests.
